Wild Acres LLC Family Farm and Bakery: Gluten Free & Dairy Free Baking

In 2023, Kelly faced a new reality: food allergies were causing severe inflammation.

Unable to find a bakery that could safely provide her a birthday cake, Kelly wondered if she would even have a cake for her birthday.

Kelly “was determined to make her own cake!” and, “after many tears, and truly awful cakes, she landed on a recipe that we still enjoy to this day!”

Their goal is “to always have something for everyone!”

In 2025, they broke ground in Wilder, “with our first flock of ducks, a garden that was fruitful with lettuce but in need of much soil improvement.”

Soon after, Kelly started an “allergy conscious baking endeavor and Wild Acres LLC Family Farm and Bakery was born!”

Wild Acres LLC Family Farm and Bakery considers itself a “safe space” for customers “who struggle with celiac or multiple food allergens.” Their goal is “to always have something for everyone!”

Wild Acres LLC offers customers a great selection of Gluten Free and Dairy Free products; however, what makes Wild Acres so special—and we speak from experience on this—is that their products are DELICIOUS!

In fact, they are often told by customers that their Gluten Free/Dairy Free sandwich bread, “is “the best gluten free bread [they’ve] ever had.”

Another great product offered as Gluten Free/Dairy Free are the Wild Acres LLC cakes. One great aspect of their cakes is that “they can be so simple or all dolled up and sophisticated flavor and design wise” besides “you can never go wrong with a great cake!”

Wild Acres LLC also offers fresh duck eggs. In the future, they will also be adding a variety of fruit trees, as well as some livestock.

Wild Acres LLC recently invested in a brand new commercial oven to help with production,” with the vow to “keep our standard high for allergy friendliness.”

New Sign, Who Dis?

At Made In The Valley we believe keeping Idaho local and supporting the valley isn't just about creating a magazine full of amazing local businesses, services, producers, and creators.

We are proud to say that, recently, Made In The Valley was able to adopt a stretch of highway in Kuna and we will be doing our part to keep Idaho beautiful. So when you see us out picking up litter feel free to wave or honk to say hi!

We are so excited for this opportunity and we think it would be awesome to include a collage of cool photos and selfies of people, pets, businesses, departments, and organizations who would like to see themselves in a future editions of Made In The Valley magazine!

When you see an Adopt a Highway sign, any Adopt a Highway sign, snap a pic in front of it and send it over to us to get featured and help bring awareness to all the amazing people who help keep the highways clean around the valley!

We love our community and we hope to see you soon!

*More ways to enjoy and get involved with the
Made In The Valley community coming soon!*

Wild Render Collection
TALLOW SKINCARE PRODUCTS

Handcrafted with heart.

"Looking back, I can see God's hand in every step of the journey."

Wild Render Collection started in Megan High's home kitchen, fueled by faith, curiosity, and plenty of trial and error. What began as a personal passion project to create nourishing skincare for family, snowballed into a thriving business.

"Every product is handcrafted in small batches using tallow that I render myself from grass-fed and finished beef suet." Megan says, "I love creating products that feel luxurious without being complicated."

What sets Wild Render Collection apart is the commitment of "No premade bases, no shortcuts, and no mystery ingredients." Products are formulated with everything from scratch because they believe that "people deserve to know what's in the products they use every day." This is because "Customers appreciate the simplicity, and I love helping people discover that sometimes less really is more," says Megan.

Competing for the "most favored product" are the Glow Whips and the Wild Relief Stick. An honorable mention, though, goes out to the Rooted & Wild Lotion—these three products "are the ones customers come back for again and again." The best part of having a business in the Treasure Valley is, "the people. Without question...The Treasure Valley is filled with hardworking, kind-hearted people who genuinely support local businesses." Turning customers into friends and giving "that sense of community is something special," according to Megan.

My goal is simple: keep making products with integrity, keep serving customers well, and keep following where God leads." "If you see the booth with all the tallow products and the woman happily talking skincare, that's probably me. Stop by and say hi—I love meeting new people."

Freeze-Dried Idaho

Photo credit for this article: Freeze-Dried Idaho

Freeze_dried_Idaho

8101 Fairview Ave. Boise,
Idaho 83704

The team behind Freeze-Dried Idaho said that their journey didn't start in a test kitchen—it started with a sudden layoff.

Their initial plan was to start a specialized candy business: That plan ignited a “deeper investigation” into a “glaring gap in the market”—“the freeze-dried industry was expanding nationwide, Idaho lacked a dedicated, regional producer.”

With this “opportunity to innovate, the concept evolved... Freeze-dried Idaho was founded to fill that void.”

When they began they had two main goals for the business: “communicate the unique process that sets [their] products apart and “firmly anchor [their] identity in the community.”

These goals allow Freeze-Dried Idaho to have “a dedication to [their] roots, a celebration of local sourcing, and our vision of putting Idaho on the map as a pioneer in the modern freeze-dried market.”

Freeze-Dried Idaho is not just “running a business...we are building an entirely new industry footprint for our home state.”

They “fuse modern preservation techniques with exceptional flavor” This means they are “delivering a completely unique, crisp culinary experience built on quality and a proud Idaho root.”

Their process “locks in up to 97% of the original nutrients and intensifies natural flavors without a single additive, preservative, or oil.”

Freeze-Dried Idaho not only puts their passion into producing their “signature snacks,” they also share their knowledge of the technology of freeze-drying by providing “Custom Freeze-Drying Services” to the growers and local customers and holding “Educational Classes & Workshops” that cover technical preparation, food safety, and business development.

All of this combined lends to their mission of “fostering community innovation and helping local producers, creators, and neighbors grow right alongside us.” They value the “opportunity to connect face-to-face, talk, and educate” which allows them “to cultivate real relationships... Helping our community discover a healthier, more innovative way to enjoy and preserve food.”

Looking forward, Freeze-Dried Idaho is focused on expanding their custom food services and providing educational classes, thus “transforming our facility into a true community resource—fostering regional innovation and helping our local food ecosystem grow together.”

Customer Favorites

Harvest Cherries: A crowd favorite featuring sweet Bing cherries. Freeze-drying intensifies their natural tart-sweet balance, creating a rich, deeply satisfying crunch.

Tropical Mango: Perfectly ripened mango slices transformed into light, airy crisps. It delivers an immediate burst of concentrated tropical flavor with no added sugars or preservatives.

Golden Pineapple: Tangy and sweet, our pineapple segments shatter beautifully with every bite, offering a refreshing, vibrant flavor profile that tastes exactly like summer.

Sweet Peaches: Capturing the essence of a ripe orchard peach, these slices offer a delicate, melt-in-your-mouth texture paired with a powerful, nostalgic sweetness.
